

Art 2 Collaborative Public Art Project

Using the theme “What brings us together?” students teamed up to design and paint Adirondack chairs for use in the high school’s Learning Commons. Chairs were provided by a grant that the library earned in an effort to improve the space for students. A formal ribbon-cutting ceremony preceded the introduction of the outside deck, which will continue to receive improvements.

