

POTTERY 1 FINAL COMPREHENSIVE PITCHER

For their final project, students begin by sketching an original drawing of a pitcher or other vessel that integrates together the main hand-building techniques learned over the course of the semester: pinching, coiling, pulling, and slab-building. Their work is intentional and thoughtful, so that each characteristic fits with the overall design.

